NOTABLE PRIZES

Of Hawaii For 1906

The $500 Ocean Yacht Race Trophy

The Beautiful White Rock Golf Cup

The BULLETIN'S $2000 Prize List

Consisting of a $1400 Reo Touring Car; a $350 Kroeger Piano; a $5000 Insurance Policy; a Silver Punchbowl; a Sewing Machine; a Store Order; a Winchester Rifle; a set of Golf Clubs and Leather Bag; a Suit Case; a Kodak Developing Machine.

The winner of the ocean race cup will demonstrate the skill of his crew and the fine model of his yacht; the winner of the golf trophy will secure the prize by good playing and steady nerve; but the finest prize of all—The Bulletin's Touring Car, will be a test of personal popularity that will establish the reputation of the winner for the next twenty-five years. Every one still remembers that Capt. Simerson of the Island fleet, won The Bulletin's Binoculars; that Jim Gorman won the diamond ring; that the Kohala Club won the Pope-Tribune Runabout, but all these prizes put together do not equal in value the first prize in the present contest—the Splendid Reo. This is not only a business enterprise of The Bulletin's, but is a splendid opportunity presented to the people of Hawaii. Both old and new subscribers are entitled to votes which may be turned in for any person the holder may select.

THE FIRST PRIZE is a Reo Touring Car complete. The Reo is the 1906 standard of Utilized Power; 16 horsepower, 1500 pounds, seating five people, speed 35 miles per hour, price $1400. Invented and built by R. E. Olds, the foremost designer and builder of gasoline motor cars in the United States. The Von Hamm-Young Co. is agent for this car, and their experience with many makes of autos is a sufficient guarantee that they will not handle any but high-grade SUCCESSFUL automobiles.

THE SECOND PRIZE is a handsome Kroeger Piano, from the well-known Island firm, The Bazaar Music Co., who have handled the best of piano since 1895, and hundreds of people in the Territory bear testimony to its fine tone, splendid workmanship and lasting qualities.

THE THIRD PRIZE is a $5000 Insurance Policy issued by the Continental Casualty Co., of Chicago. The Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. are the local agents.

FOURTH PRIZE is a Silver Punchbowl from the jewelry establishment of M. R. Counter, Fort street.

FIFTH PRIZE—A $40 Store Order, issued by The Bulletin Publishing Co., Ltd.

SIXTH PRIZE—A Domestic Sewing Machine from The Von Hamm-Young Co.

SEVENTH PRIZE—A B. G. I. Sole Leather Golf Bag and a set of Willie Parke clubs, from the sporting goods department of E. O. Hall & Son.

EIGHTH PRIZE—A Winchester Repeating Rifle from the sporting goods store of Woods & Sheldon.

NINTH PRIZE—A Gold Mounted, Sole Leather Suit Case from The Von Hamm-Young Co.

TENTH PRIZE—A Kodak Developing Machine from the Honolulu Photo Supply Co.

These ten prizes are the high-water mark of merit, value, tone and usefulness in the Territory of Hawaii. The winning of them is a question of votes and the votes may be had under the following conditions:

AMERICA MARU SAILS THROUGH STORMY SEAS

Severe wind for three days after leaving San Francisco was experienced by the America Maru, which arrived in port at 6 o'clock last night, being a little over six days making the trip. Last Friday afternoon the sea was so rough that about twenty-four feet of the wooden railing on the starboard quarter deck was swept away by the waves, but it has since been replaced. The last half of the journey was through mild seas.

At 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning the Maru met an American four-master schooner, bound southwest. It signaled to report it all well. It is believed to be the schooner Aloha.

The passenger list of the Maru is light, and of them seven stopped over in Honolulu. Among those remaining here for a short time are Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Graves, bound for Hongkong. Mr. Graves is connected with one of the biggest hardware firms in Chicago.

Another passenger of importance to staff of in Honolulu is Mrs. W. H. Avery, wife of the assistant manager of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha line. She is bound for Hongkong, also.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McCord are passengers on the Maru, traveling on their honeymoon. Mr. McCord is connected with a mercantile house in Shanghai.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Beveridge, of Los Angeles, are on the Maru. They are accompanied by their two daughters, Misses Phyllis and Marion Beveridge.

Chin Fun, a prominent importer of Chicago, and his wife are passengers on the Maru, as is also S. P. Yee, a wealthy young Korean who has been attending the University of Syracuse.

The America Maru passed the Nippon Maru at 5 o'clock Saturday evening. The America Maru sails this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The New "DISHWASHER"

There is more popular demand for a cheap, practical and durable Dish Washer than any article that can be mentioned.

There is no machine about the household used as frequently as the Dish Washer.

The services of a carpet sweeper are required two or three times a week; the washing machine once a week; the clothes wringer only once a week; while the sewing machine often stands idle for months; but the Dish-Washer is in demand THREE TIMES each day, and its benefits are thus constantly being dispensed to its users.
